

SCHMIDT PLOTTED ORGY OF MURDERS

CONFESSED PLOT AFTER POLICE FIND DEATH AND BURIAL CERTIFICATES IN ROOM.

GIVES NEWSPAPER INTERVIEW

"I Was Preparing to Kill Persons for Whom Life Isn't Worth Living," He Says—Ready to Face Death in Electric Chair.

New York.—Detectives rumaging through the effects of Hans Schmidt, confessed murderer of Anna Aumueler, were strengthened in their belief that he had planned other murders by finding complete sets of health department blanks necessary to dispose of bodies, from death certificates to undertakers' permits.

Such blanks are issued by the department only to physicians in good standing, whose records have been investigated rigidly.

With the finding of these blanks the police redoubled the vigor of their search for Helen Green, who vanished a month ago after writing Schmidt that she could not live without him.

She was believed to be in Chicago. Schmidt told the detectives that she was a casual acquaintance.

"What's the difference if I killed one or half a dozen?" said Schmidt. It was the first opportunity newspaper men had to talk with the prisoner.

"Why don't you be quick and put me in the electric chair?" Schmidt demanded.

"The district attorney wants me to go to the electric chair, and I want to go, and what's the use of all this delay? I am sorry for any one who thinks this life worth living. I have faced death many a time and I will face death in the electric chair without moving a muscle."

As glibly and as unconcerned as he had revealed the revolting details of the murder and dismemberment of Anna Aumueler, Schmidt, confronted with new evidence of his criminal operations, told the police he had perfected a scheme by which he had intended to enter upon a career of wholesale murder. Only his timely apprehension prevented the priest, the man admitted in his cell in the Tombs, from achieving the apex of his criminal existence.

The revelations had been anticipated by the investigators, who were convinced the imprisoned cleric, if he already had not done so, was contemplating a long succession of murders.

FOLK MAY SUCCEED BRYAN

SECRETARY TO RESIGN, IS BELIEF IN WASHINGTON.

Appointment of Former Gov. Folk of Missouri as Solicitor is Only Temporary Honor.

Washington, D. C.—The appointment of former Gov. Folk as solicitor or attorney of the state department is taken here as indication that Secretary Bryan will resign within a few months and that Folk will take his place.

It is known that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have been after Folk for three months to accept the position he now has. There has been a strong intimation that this position would prove to be merely a stepping stone to something. It is now conjectured that this something is the portfolio of state.

The reason for this lies in the fact that Bryan has been so severely criticized that he is now uneasy in his berth. Obviously, the president is embarrassed by the course events have taken.

Folk has been governor and was freely mentioned as Missouri's candidate for the presidency up to the time of Speaker Clark's ascendancy. His appointment to any position of a permanent character would be received with satisfaction by Senator Stone and Senator Reed, to say nothing of David R. Francis.

He carried $105 in cash, papers valued at $500, and a bank book, and his wife believes he was murdered.

HUERTA SUMMONS GEN. DIAZ

Will Be Pushed for Presidency—Recall Follows Out Pact Signed at United States Embassy.

City of Mexico.—Instructions have been sent by President Huerta to Gen. Felix Diaz, who is now in Europe, to return to Mexico immediately. It is expected that he will sail within a few days.

The fact is learned on high authority, and it is regarded here as indicating that Gen. Huerta intends to abide by the pact signed at the American embassy last February to place no obstacle in the path of Gen. Diaz in his candidacy for the presidency. It is considered possible that Gen. Huerta will throw his influence to Diaz, which would practically insure his election.

SULZER'S WITNESS FAILS

LOUIS SARECKY, DEPENDED ON FOR FACTS, MISSING.

First Big Fight in Impeachment of New York Governor Occurred Over Procedure Rules.

Albany, N. Y.—Louis A. Sarecky, former secretary to Gov. William Sulzer before the latter was elected governor, and after Mrs. Sulzer probably the chief witness in the Sulzer impeachment trial, has disappeared.

Representatives of the assembly managers, sent to Buffalo to locate him in that city, wired here that he had left the state and was believed to be in Cleveland, O. Sarecky had charge of the Sulzer campaign funds and the impeachment managers planned to compel him to testify as to their disposition.

Sarecky has been declared in contempt of the Frawley investigation committee, and it had been planned to arraign him at the bar of the assembly. He and Mrs. Sulzer are the only two individuals who knew the entire inside of the financial transactions on which the assembly managers predicated their original articles of impeachment.

The first big fight came today when attorneys for Sulzer assailed the rules of procedure which were prepared by a special committee composed of Senators Wagner, Brown and Judge Bartlett. In order to be able to do this, the attorneys of the accused executive, in entering their appearance, announced that they were purporting "to object to the jurisdiction of the high court and to its membership."

CURRENCY BILL IS PASSED

Measure Goes to the Senate With No Changes in Its Essential Provisions—Gold Standard Upheld.

Washington, D. C.—The administration currency bill was passed by the house by a vote of 286 to 84, practically unamended in its essential provisions.

The final vote brought a number of Republicans to the support of the administration measure. Twenty-four Republicans voted for the bill and three Democrats voted against it. A final fight on an amendment reaffirming the present financial policy of gold money standard caused some defections from the Democratic side.

Representative Wingo of Arkansas demanded a record vote on the so-called gold standard amendment and on a division 165 Democrats and Republicans voted for it and 45 Democrats voted against it. A roll call was ordered.

CUTS SLAYER'S HEAD OFF

PHYSICIAN, FATALLY SHOT, BEHEADS ASSAILANT.

Duel Between Prominent Mississippi Men Results in Almost Instant Death of Both.

Aberdeen, Miss.—Dr. H. F. Broyles, owner of the Greenwood Springs hotel, state senator, congressional nominee, merchant, planter and millman, was shot to death by E. F. Hendrix at Greenwood Springs station. After Dr. Broyles had been shot he seized an ax and beheaded Hendrix. Both men died almost instantly.

Reports say that Hendrix bought timber lands and a lumber mill from Broyles some time ago and difficulty between them had followed the deal.

Little is known of Hendrix, who came to this county from Tennessee about six years ago, and has since been engaged in the mill and lumber business.

Broyles is survived by a widow and three children, a sister, Mrs. Dr. L. F. Downing, of Hamilton, this county, and two brothers, Dr. Lalla Broyles, prominent in Southern Methodism, and Jim Broyles of Birmingham, Ala.

The men met at the depot, where Hendrix was waiting for a train. The two renewed their old argument and Hendrix drew a revolver, shooting and wounding Broyles fatally. The wounded man seized an ax and struck at his assailant. The keen blade struck Hendrix in the neck, severing his head. Broyles staggered and fell dead over the body of his enemy.

DROPS 500 FEET TO DEATH

Balloon Ascends With Boy, 13, Entangled in Guy Ropes—5,000 People See Him Fall.

Woodstock, Conn.—Thirteen-year-old George Bernier, who was holding a guy rope to a balloon while it was being inflated preparatory to an ascension at a local fair, was suddenly carried 500 feet in the air and then dropped to instant death in front of the grand stand, where 5,000 people were assembled.

In order to secure a better hold on the guy rope during the inflation of the balloon, the boy wound the rope about his wrist several times. When the balloonist, Harold Gates, of Newburyport, Mass., started his ascension the boy did not have time to unwind the rope and was carried swiftly upward, dangling by one hand. Gates was not aware of the boy's predicament until the rope unwound itself and the boy was dashed to death.

Physicians who are attending Beach say if he recovers from the attack he will be marked for life.

MAKE A FINE FRUIT PICKLE

Nothing to Improve on Peach Mangoes Has Been Devised by the Expert Preservers.

Peach mangoes are one of the most delicious of all fruit pickles. To prepare them select ripe, tree-ripe peaches and put them in brine, strong enough to float an egg, for 48 hours. Then soak them in clear, cold water for 20 minutes. Dry them and remove a small section from each peach. Do this with a sharp silver knife and bruise the flesh of the peach as little as possible in doing it.

Remove the pit through this hole. Sprinkle the cavity where the pit was with celery seed and fill it with freshly grated horseradish moistened with vinegar. Then replace the piece taken from the peach and sew it in place with strong cotton or linen thread. Stand the peaches in glass jars.

Count the fruit and for every sixty peaches boil a gallon of vinegar, a pound of brown sugar and a quarter of a teaspoonful of cayenne pepper. Pour this spiced vinegar, boiling hot, over the fruit in the jars. These should be standing in a kettle of boiling water, which has been brought to this point gradually.

When the fruit and juice are cold, tie them up or seal them. They will be ready to eat in ten days or two weeks, but, of course, they are better the longer they stand.

MAKE THE DISHES DAINTY

Many Ways by Which the "Throw-Aways" May Be Used to Excellent Advantage.

We are so used to the term "left-over" that we can hardly realize that only a few years ago it did not exist. I would like to coin another word, the "throw-away," for those many bits that the unthinking housewife generally puts into the garbage can. Instead of cheerfully peeling the cucumber and serving it in unattractive slices, why not slice a long section from the side of the cucumber and scoop out the contents. This would easily make a cucumber "boat," and the pulp could be mixed with French dressing, chopped onion and topped with radishes. A little more time, but so much more attractive! The same can be done with a half or the top of the pineapple. Scoop out the contents of the half, or a small section, and fill with a gelatin jelly, a pineapple whip, or a salad of cream cheese. There would be almost no extra trouble, and it would be more than repaid by the added attractiveness of the dish. The green leaves of the cauliflower, if not faded, the tops of carrots, the peels of oranges, grapefruit and lemons, have some worth as containers, and instead of being "throw-aways" will add novelty and attractiveness to various dishes.—Exchange.

Mock Olives.

Mock olives made of green plums are worth making. Get a quarter of a peck of them. Mix an ounce of mustard seed, two quarts of vinegar, two tablespoonsful of salt and boil it. When it is boiling, pour it over the green plums, which should have been washed, sorted and laid out on a board or table to dry. Let the plums stand in the spiced vinegar until the next morning and then drain it off. Heat it and pour it over the plums again. Let them get cold and bottle and cork them.

Honey Vinegar.

If you want some fine vinegar, pure in quality and very tasty, make it from honey. Add a pound and a half of strained honey to a gallon of water. Then keep it in a warm place for a few months and it will be ready. If it is not strong enough add more honey. Three pounds of honey to a gallon of water is a good proportion. While not suited for all purposes, in the making of salads and for ordinary table uses there is nothing that can be compared to honey vinegar.

Sponge Pudding.

Scald one pint of milk over boiling water and add one-half cup butter. Add a smooth thickening of one cup of flour mixed with cold milk. Let it cool. When cold add the yolks of four eggs; have the whites beaten stiff, and stir in lightly. Bake an hour in a pan of water.

Cold Sauce—One-half cup butter, one cup powdered sugar; four tablespoons of milk may be added and flavored to suit.

When Ironing Linen.

Various substances are used to give linen a polish. A bit of wax or gum arabic added to the starch when boiling makes a reliable foundation for a good polish. A laundry polish can scarcely be obtained without the use of a polishing iron. The articles to be polished are first ironed in the ordinary way, then damped by laying on them a wet cloth, then placed on a board and rubbed quickly with the polishing iron until they shine.

Pear Chips.

Core, quarter and then cut in small pieces eight pounds of pears, add four pounds of sugar and one-quarter pound of Canton ginger and let stand overnight. In the morning add four lemons cut in small pieces, rejecting seeds. Cook slowly three hours. Put in stone jar.

BISHOP'S POINT WELL MADE

Rebuke to Which It Is Hard to See How the Curate Could Make an Answer.

Bishop Oliphant of Llandaff had a well-to-do young man as curate who had rather sporting instincts. He kept his own horses and always drove tandem. The bishop disapproved, and decided to administer a rebuke on a favorable opportunity. Both the bishop and the curate, each driving in his own way, met near the historic Cow and Snuffers. The bishop, of course, was driving two abreast, and the curate tandem, as usual.

"I really must protest," said the bishop, "at your driving about in such a manner."

"Well, my lord," said the curate, "you are driving two horses, and so am I. What is the difference?"

After a few moments' reflection Bishop Oliphant replied:

"If, when you are at prayers at the cathedral, the congregation placed their hands in the same position as you have placed your horses what would become of the dignity and solemnity of the service?"—London Mail.
